Injunction Obtained for Elquator Sdn Bhd, a Danish Renewable Energy Firm

KUALA LUMPUR – Messrs Goik Ramesh & Loo acting for Elquator Sdn Bhd, a Danish renewable energy firm, successfully obtained an interim-injunction for Elquator, and its associate companies, on its ex-parte injunction application against Elquator Purple Haze Energy Sdn Bhd to protect the infringement of its proprietary technology and trade name and trademark.

Elquator is a Danish renewable energy company that specializes in sustainable energy generation by utilizing the combined energy of sun, wind, heat and water. Their unique technology, developed in Denmark, now forms an integral part of the alternative and renewable energy sources that produce safe, reliable and increasingly clean electricity for power generation in ASEAN countries.

Our partner Casey Goik stated, “We are very pleased that the Judge agreed with us in this injunction application. The renewable energy business is a fast growing segment and Elquator have the technology and expertise to exploit opportunities in this market. The company has appointed the firm due to its expertise in renewable energy business and technologies and its strong litigation expertise”.

Messrs Goik Ramesh & Loo acted as the lead counsel for Elquator in this matter, where the team was led by partner Casey Goik, supported by associate Christie Ling Chui Lin.
